Parson to Person

Dear People of Grace,

I have just begun reading a book called The Jesuit Guide to (Almost) Everything, A Spirituality for Real Life by James Martin, a Jesuit priest. This book is like sitting down for a long chat with a wise but very down-to-earth spiritual director. The Jesuits or the Society of Jesus are a community of Roman Catholics throughout the world who base their spiritual ideas and practice on the teachings of St. Ignatius of Loyola. What makes their practice of the Christian faith so interesting is that it is so practical. It really is a spirituality for real life. Since you and I are living what we think of as “real life,” it is an approach to the faith that is very accessible to us as well as to the Jesuits throughout the world.

Evidently, when St. Ignatius wrote his Spiritual Exercises, which is comparable to what some other orders, like the Benedictines, call their Rule, St. Ignatius made these spiritual exercises flexible enough so that they could be adapted for all Christians, not just religious communities. If one were to describe this spirituality, it might include the following four highlights: 1) finding God in all things, 2) becoming a contemplative in action, 3) looking at the world in an incarnational way, and 4) seeking freedom and detachment.

Fr. Martin does a beautiful job of relating stories as examples to help us understand this approach to the faith. One way in which he described the first point, “Finding God in all things,” was to say that God meets us wherever we are. If this is true, then in order to find God, we don't have to necessarily go anywhere or do anything special. Rather, since God meets us wherever we are while we are doing whatever we are doing, we can encounter God and God can encounter us at any time. Therefore, God desires to meet us wherever we are in everyday life.

Fr. Martin also talks about the many different ways and circumstances in which people encounter God and God encounters them. Some are looking for God. Others may have given up on the idea of the existence of God. Others may have had a spiritual upbringing but have drifted away from God in their adulthood. However, since God is ready and able to encounter us wherever we are, God can and will meet us in whatever state of belief or unbelief, seeking or not seeking in which we find ourselves. How wonderful is that? What it means is that no one is beyond the loving reach of our wonderful God.

I am thinking of a Lenten reading group where we might use this book as a guide to learn and encourage one another with this very practical approach to the Christian faith. Lent begins this year on Ash Wednesday, which is March 1, 2017. I would invite you to take a look at this book between now and then and let me know if you'd be interested in getting together weekly during the Lenten Season and beginning to learn this very practical approach to the Christian faith together.

Grace and Peace,

Fr. Gary Coffey

Adult Formation

January 8-March 19, join us during Sunday school hour in the parish hall for the Genesis Seminar. Our oldest stories, the Book of Genesis tells the beginning of our story as the People of God. The ten stories within it are not remote, dusty tales, but archetypal ones of human strife, family conflict, perseverance, and love, themes readily seen in our lives today. We'll consider each story separately, looking for human failings and human triumphs, and for the presence of God even in times of conflict and struggle.

Fellowship: TALENT SHOW!

Do you have a secret talent? Are you a singer, storyteller, dancer or juggler? We want you to share your talent at the Grace Church Mardi Gras Talent Show. Join us Sunday, February 26 at 5:30 p.m. for a potluck supper and Talent Show hosted by our own Monty Wooten and the PubSing band.

Bring your favorite Cajun dish and stay for the family-friendly entertainment. Sign up your act on the kiosk in the foyer or contact Sally Withers and the Fellowship Ministry at 712-1955.

Outreach

THANK YOU! The members of the Grace Outreach Committee would like to thank all the members of the parish for your support of our recent food drive for ABCCM, oatmeal donations to our Back Packer program, and our Angel Tree. Our volunteers took thirty-three bags of much-needed food to ABCCM. You provided presents for sixty foster children in Buncombe County. We want to say a special thank you to all of you who responded with donations on December 18, which allowed us to take the last four angels off the tree and buy presents for them. Your oatmeal donations are allowing us to provide a hot breakfast during this cold weather to hungry children at Jones Elementary. We are grateful for your willingness to help "the least of these."

Wedding Team: Members Needed

The eight weddings already booked for 2017 at Grace Church will contribute to expenses related to the maintenance of the church. But weddings at Grace do not just "happen." Members of the Wedding Team spend time advising and helping the bride and groom. Team members are also at the rehearsal and wedding to assist people who are often first-time visitors to our church. Now, with the number of Grace weddings increasing, we would like to expand our team. Please consider this fun and rewarding ministry. For more information, call the church office or call/email Jean Haldane, 253-9085 or halejd2071@yahoo.com.

Total Expenses:	369,267	368,915	352
Income Less Expenses:	20,849	0	20,849

Pledge receipts through the end of November totaled $314,856 compared to projected pledges of $301,583. Considering all income sources, income received to date totaled $390,116, while we projected income to be $368,915. We ended the month with another positive income variance of $21,201. Excluding the large donation received early in the year, we are still experiencing a slightly positive trend in overall income.

The positive income variance thus far was reduced somewhat by expenses which were slightly greater than budgeted amounts by $352. When subtracted from the positive income variance of $21,201 our income less expenses resulted in a still healthy surplus of $20,849 thus far in the year.

While we proceeded this year in a very positive manner, we do need to be aware that a single donation has greatly influenced our financial position. We continue to encourage prayer and attention to our stewardship efforts.

Our New Vestry Members

CHERYL DEYTON is a North Carolina native who moved to Asheville in 1984. Raised in the Presbyterian Church, she attended a Catholic elementary school and fell in love with the ritual style of worship. As a young adult, she worked in South Africa as a physical therapist at a school for disabled children and youth. During that time, she worked with a physician who was a longtime Episcopal missionary from Trinity Church in NY and St. James in Hendersonville.

Cheryl met and married Monty Wooten, a Grace parishioner. With their son, Cade, they have been involved with Backpackers, the Angel Tree, and Children's Sabbath. Cheryl is also a member of the Outreach Committee. "I am honored to be chosen to be part of the vestry at Grace Church," says Cheryl, "and I look forward to expanding my knowledge of how the church works and how it functions in our community."

KATHLEEN GRIFFIN moved back to north Asheville in the early '90's. At first, she and her husband, Bob, enjoyed being within walking distance of the church from their home. Later, Kathleen volunteered at Grace as Parish Nurse. "I have found my place," Kathleen says of Grace. She feels that the people of Grace practice their faith and demonstrate their values. "That was especially apparent to me when my husband died... I see the members of this parish serving God in their chosen ministries as we travel this road together, as we seek and serve all persons - and God - in our love and labor and as we continue to grow in our faith. We know how to pray - and we know how to play - together."

DAPHNE URQUHART was raised in and loved the Episcopal Church before sojourning for some twenty-seven years with a group of liturgical Baptists. In late 2009, she felt called to return home to the Episcopal Church and found Grace to be just the right place to continue her faith journey with her husband, Paul. "I have a particular love for serving as an acolyte and lay reading and enjoy encouraging young acolytes as they learn more about serving." When Daphne is not at work being a CPA, she enjoys leading a tailgating ministry at Appalachian State football games, cooking, knitting, and making handmade note cards. She says: "I look forward to serving on the Vestry and am honored to have been asked to serve."

JOHN WOODSON grew up in Bells, TN, in the Southern Baptist Church. As a teenager until he was twenty years old, John worked summers for the Tennessee Baptist Convention as a camp counselor and group leader for Royal Ambassador camps across the state. He loved being outdoors and sharing his faith in that setting with the boys who attended the camps. John went to Georgia Tech, where he met his future wife, Beth, and they were married in 1974. Beth was an Episcopalian, and they began attending Episcopal churches in Gaffney and Greenwood, SC. John was confirmed in 1976. Their daughter, Jade, was born there in 1977. When John was transferred from Raleigh to the Asheville/Weaverville area in 1986, he and his family began attending Grace Church and have been members ever since. He was elected to the Vestry in 1989, and served three years, two of them as Senior Warden. Following his retirement in 2015, John has most recently spent several months hiking the Appalachian Trail. "I am still in the process of plotting a course for the next chapter of my life," says John, "but I am willing to accept the honor of serving once again on the vestry of Grace Church as I begin this new phase."
