Dear People of God,

I find myself experiencing a little pre-vacation euphoria today. However, I don't think it's just pre-vacation euphoria affecting me. I think it's also an excitement about how the Holy Spirit is moving in Christendom in our day and time. I agree with Phyllis Tickle and others who say that it does seem as if something significant happens about every five hundred years in Christendom and that it's happening now. Five hundred years ago, we had the Protestant Reformation, which provided a needed rethinking of parts of the Christian faith.

At the time of the Reformation, there were some needed doctrinal changes in our understanding of the faith. One of those involved our understanding of being justified or put right with God or forgiven, not because of what we do, but through faith in Christ's atoning death for us. Partly as a result of this, Christians began to understand faith as believing certain doctrines about God. Consequently, there was an emphasis on believing these facts rather than trusting in God, and belief came to be understood as intellectual assent to certain propositions about God instead of trust in God.

The fresh winds of the Holy Spirit that are blowing today are leading us back in the direction of faith as trust. As a practical example of this, think about the Nicene Creed. The way we say it, "I believe in God the Father, I believe in Jesus Christ and I believe in the Holy Spirit," sounds to us like intellectual assent, and of course, it is fine to give our intellectual assent to these assertions of the Creed. But, and this is the critical but, our faith takes us much deeper than that. Our faith is about putting our trust in this God.

It would probably help us integrate this by saying the Creed this way, "I put my trust in God the Father, I put my trust in Jesus Christ and I put my trust in the Holy Spirit." What this does is underscore the fact that our faith is relational. It is about our relationship to God as a personal entity who loved us first and who now loves us in return. It's not about just believing facts about God. Rather, it is about a loving relationship with God and actually being in God.

It is about trusting Jesus and following Him in our lives.

Christianity is a religion, but more importantly, it is a relationship with the living God. It is that, Beloved, which makes all the difference. It is about proclaiming the Good News that God came to earth in the person of Jesus to show us the very face of God. And guess what? What we saw in Jesus was love, and it's the kind of love that all human beings desire somewhere deep inside them. Why? Because we were all created in the image and likeness of that God. We yearn for the love that the Holy Spirit brings to us through Jesus and our relationship with Him as we follow Him in our lives.

We nurture our relationship with God by following Jesus in our lives and by employing certain practices to do so. The practices of the Christian faith such as worship, prayer, study and service keep us centered in our God and allow God's goodness to be imparted to us by the Holy Spirit. "Thank you, God, for always bringing us fresh understandings of our relationship with you through your Holy Spirit. AMEN."

Blessings and Peace,

Fr. Gary Coffey

"The fresh winds of the Holy Spirit that are blowing today are leading us back in the direction of faith as trust."

Thankyou and Congratulations, Fr. Gary!

We are especially thankful for Fr. Gary at this time in his life. Gary was ordained on May 23, 1984, and this past month was the anniversary of his ordination. Grace is very grateful for and blessed by his leadership and pastoring of our parish. We must remember always to offer prayers for Gary that God will continue to sustain, lead, and bless him with wisdom as he pastors our parish. He is always on call for those in our parish and those God sends his way.

Rummage Sale This Saturday

Don't forget our Rummage Sale this Saturday, June 1, 8:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. We have extended the closing time by an hour. It is not too late to volunteer to help. Just come shop, and then help with the sale and break down. Our leftover items will be picked up by Goodwill. If you have questions, please call Nancy Remmers at 298-9789.

Fifth Sunday Brunch Set for June 30

Our next 5th Sunday Brunch will be June 30 at 10:00 a.m. in the parish hall. This brunch is a time of fellowship regardless of the service you attend. It is a time to share wonderful food and, above all, a time to welcome our new families.

Please come and help celebrate this event. If you go to either of the early services, you can bring your brunch food to the kitchen before you go to church. If you attend the 11:15 service, bring your food and enjoy the brunch before worship.

During each service, Fr. Coffey will offer the Rite of Belonging to those wishing to be a part of Grace parish fellowship. There will be no Sunday school on this Sunday, so please join us and enjoy the day.

Rite of Belonging: June 30, All Services

It has become our custom at Grace to welcome our newcomers on 5th Sundays, both in worship and at our 5th Sunday Potluck Brunch. As a brief part of the 5th Sunday worship service called the Rite of Belonging, we pledge our support to our newcomers and they to us. If you are new or relatively new (it's been a long time since we had a Rite of Belonging in worship), we would love to introduce you to the congregation and include you in the Rite of Belonging on the upcoming 5th Sunday, June 30. Please give Fr. Coffey or Fr. Reese a quick call, and we will put your name on the list. Thank you very much!

Your Parish Needs You

A Note from Fr. Gary

We have a variety of volunteer positions open here at Grace and I do hope you will consider helping in one of these ways if you possibly can. We need ushers for all services, coffee making volunteers for 9:00 and especially 11:15, and Altar Guild and Flower Guild volunteers. Thank you in advance for whatever you are able to do. Please contact Fr. Bob, Becky in the church office, or me about volunteering.

Your Help Keeps Camp Henry Affordable

Camp Henry must improve emergency exits in the dorm and must obtain a better rescue boat. They would like to construct a footbridge across the river to connect the climbing tower area to other camp facilities and to make crossing the highway safer. The boathouse needs to be painted. The pool table is in need of repair. The Camp Henry wish list also includes dodge balls, tennis balls, frisbees, golf discs, canoe paddles, life jackets, art supplies, glow sticks, recordable DVD's first aid supplies, brooms, dust pans, mops, vacuum cleaners, window air conditioners, a truck, vans, golf carts, school supplies, gift and gas cards for staff and more. If you would like to donate any of those items, you may bring them to the church or you may contact Camp Henry for pick-up. Camp Henry would also like to give scholarships to campers who need assistance. They have received a grant that will help provide full scholarships for 20 campers from disadvantaged backgrounds, and they expect to grant at least $85,000 in scholarship assistance this year. The goal for the Camp Henry Fund that helps with other expenses is $50,000.

Please consider a generous monetary or in-kind gift to support this thriving ministry to our young people. Find a letter and a detailed wish list from Camp Henry on the kiosk in the foyer and on the EYC bulletin board in the parish hall. Your support is important and appreciated.

Grace Outreach Notes

Sue Thompkins

ABCCM FOOD DRIVE. We will have our next quarterly food drive for ABCCM on Sunday, June 9. We will place bags with a list of needed food items in the pews on Sunday, June 2. Please return your filled bags to all three services on Sunday, June 9. Remember that ABCCM provides food to hungry people through its food pantries and shelter programs. As you know, there are many of our fellow residents of Buncombe County who need our help in order to feed their families. Please help us have a successful food drive.

FUTURE OUTREACH EVENTS. The Grace Outreach Committee would like to remind you that we will again be hosting the women participants of Room in the Inn early this fall. We will provide you with more information about how you can volunteer to help us have another successful week later in the summer. We will also be having our back to school program that provides school supplies to needy children in Buncombe County later in the summer. More information will be coming in July.

Healing Prayer Corner

I am writing this on Pentecost Sunday and have been reflecting back on my day. Today, I had the privilege of transporting two women from the prison to sing with their choir, "Voices of Hope." I believe that God has given me the gift of participating in this ministry.

We each have different gifts and they are unique from person to person. Our own Purls of Grace prayer shawl ministry needs several people to deliver shawls. If you feel this is a gift that God has given to you, please let Jeanne Robertson know. I can personally tell you that one of the greatest blessings I have received has been to deliver a shawl to someone I do not know. Every single time that I have delivered a shawl or lap robe, I have seen a face radiate joy and wonder. It never fails. And then it happens – I receive the blessing of giving. So I say to you, come and be a member of Purls of Grace, perhaps not as a knitter, but as a deliverer. I can guarantee that you will be blessed.

In order to provide for future budgetary needs, it is our hope contributions will increase to meet them.
