Dear People of Grace,

Don Hawkins and his son David have done a beautiful job building a labyrinth in the Urban Garden, which can be accessed down the stairs off the foyer and straight out through the glass door.

When I was walking our labyrinth recently, I thought about how appropriate it is for Grace Church. It reminded me of walking a hiking trail here in the mountains.

This past Saturday, Tommy Bratton, the Minister of Christian Formation at First Baptist Church in Asheville, led an interesting workshop on labyrinths, and I would like to share with you here some of the things we learned with the hope that you will use our labyrinth as an aid in your walk with Christ.

The following is from a brochure Tommy shared with us from First Baptist, where they have recently completed their own labyrinth.

“What is a labyrinth? A labyrinth is not a maze. There are no tricks to it and no dead ends. It has a single circuitous path that winds its way to the center. The person walking it uses the same path to return from the center and the entrance becomes the exit. The path is in full view, which allows a person to be quiet and focus internally.

“Why would I want to walk a labyrinth? The labyrinth offers us a way of journeying, inviting us into a sacred and quiet place. It is a place where we can abandon the busyness of life. It invites us into the presence of the Holy and to reflect on our inner being. To walk the labyrinth is to make a pilgrimage to discover something about ourselves and God. The labyrinth is full of mystery and produces different results for everyone. A person simply brings her or his personal thoughts, spiritual needs, or important questions to the journey.

“How do I walk a labyrinth? There is no right or wrong way to walk a labyrinth. The experience is different for each person. Whatever you experience is your experience. Trust the Holy Spirit. Here are some suggestions to make your journey more meaningful. 1. Set an intention (if you have one) for your walk. Remember that you are blessed and beloved. 2. If someone enters in front of you, wait until they have completed three or four turns before you begin. 3. Let your body naturally set the pace. Go slowly and reverently, or quickly and playfully, whatever is most comfortable. As you walk inward, RELEASE or let go, quietening the mind from distractions. 4. Use everything that occurs on the labyrinth as a metaphor. Allow for surprises and insights. 5. You may carefully pass others who are moving more slowly or step aside for others to pass you. 6. In the center, RECEIVE the deep love and peace of Christ and anything God gives you. Feel free to spend time in meditation and prayer. 7. As you return from the center, RESOLVE to do something new or different, experience REJUVENATION in your spirit. RECLAIM something you have neglected in your soul. Symbolically, and sometimes actually, you are returning to the world that which you have received. Following your walk, REFLECT on your experience. Some find it helpful to write down their thoughts. Sharing your experience with someone or listening to another's story about his or her journey can be important.”

I have found it helpful and I commend this experience to you.

Grace and Peace,
Fr. Gary Coffey

Through a short teaching by our co-chaplain, David Warren, and various prayer experiences, we hope to be more prepared emotionally and spiritually for stressful times in the holiday season. All are welcome. One does not have to be an OSL member to attend. We will not meet if the Asheville City Schools are closed on November 10 or close early due to inclement weather.

PubSing is an informal gathering on the second Sunday evening of each month to sing hymns, old-time Gospel, and Americana inspirational music. Another great Pumpkin Patch! We thank everyone who has helped make this another great year for the Pumpkin Patch at Grace Church. The weather has cooperated, and as of this report, we have reached previous years' totals averaging about $7,000 for Consider Haiti and hope to do even better. Be watching for a final tally in the December issue of the Grace TEAM.

We offer our thoughts and prayers to the friends and loved ones of Eleanore Brown.

Christmas Eve Pageant Volunteers Needed

Grace families look forward to the annual Christmas Eve Pageant every year. This effort takes a lot of behind-the-scenes work. Thankfully, we have found a Holy Family for this year, but we still need to fill a few slots:

- costume organizer: be sure costumes are organized and in the brown bags ready for families to pick up from the Parish Hall;
- reception director: this can be as simple as buying three dozen cupcakes at Sam's Club (church pays for it), ordering a sheet cake at Ingles, or compiling a smorgasbord of healthy treats with cider. The director decides! Church already has an assortment of paper napkins and so forth for the party. The reception theme is "Birthday Party for Jesus;"
- speaking parts: we have several speaking parts this year;
- group leaders: an excellent job for teens and tweens, leading a group of sheep or angels in when their cue is read.

Together, we can maintain this wonderful tradition at Grace. Please email Joanna at jboymbest@gmail.com if you can help. We need you! Jump on board!

Hurricane Relief. As you all know, Haiti was devastated by Hurricane Matthew, much of the southeast U.S. coast-line also experienced damage, and parts of North Carolina suffered from massive flooding as a result of the hurricane. If you would like to make monetary donations to help with relief for the victims of Hurricane Matthew, you may donate to Consider Haiti, which works exclusively in Haiti, and/or Episcopal Relief and Development for both Haiti and the U.S.

ABCCM Food Drive. We will be holding our last food drive of 2016 for ABCCM on Sunday, November 20. We will be collecting food for the shelters that ABCCM runs and for its food pantries. ABCCM is requesting canned tuna, canned fruit, and canned beef stew. If you need assistance bringing your food donations into the church on Sunday, November 20, we would be happy to help you. Please help us fill their request during this season of Thanksgiving when so many of us have so much for which to be grateful.

Angel Tree. Our Angel Tree will soon go up to fulfill the Christmas needs of foster children in Buncombe County. Watch for more information coming soon.

A Backpacker volunteer is still needed to deliver food bags to Jones Elementary on Monday mornings. If you can help, or if you would like more information, contact Kim Hayes, 645-4906. Thanks!

Notes from Pastoral Care

Prayer Shawl Ministry. There is an interest in revitalizing/revamping/reorganizing our Grace Prayer Shawl Ministry. The participants in this ministry design and make prayer shawls for those in our Grace community and others who have suffered loss or illness. We continue to learn of folks who will benefit from receiving a prayer shawl and we have used up the shawls we had on hand. Beth Woodson has agreed to coordinate this important activity, so if you knit or crochet (or want to learn how) and might be interested in participating, please give Beth a call at 645-4293.

Feed My Sheep. If you are making a dish you'd like to share with parishioners dealing with things such as emergency surgeries or serious but short-term illnesses, make a little extra, put it in a plastic bag with name and date, and leave a message for Jenn Clary at (870) 643-0083.

Cards and Calls Ministry. Pat Anderson (484-8505) and Chal Vaughn (277-0500) head this ministry of care and concern for our members. Let them or Kathleen Griffin (337-8241) know of folks who might appreciate a card.

Order of St. Luke

The Mountain Chapter of the Order of St. Luke extends a special invitation to those worshipping at Grace Episcopal Church to join us for our meetings in this building, the second Thursday of the month (except June, July, December) from 6:30 -8:30 p.m. All are welcome; one does not have to be a member to attend. Our meetings include educational and prayer ministry components. At our November 10 meeting, our program will focus on getting "prayed up" for the holidays. Through a short teaching by our co-chaplain, David Warren, and various prayer experiences, we hope to be more prepared emotionally and spiritually for stressful times in the holiday season.

We also encourage you to participate in our Healing Prayer Services, held every Tuesday from 7:00-8:00 p.m. The first Tuesday of the month includes a Eucharist for the healing of our families. The other Tuesdays include a brief liturgy followed by silent intercessory prayer for each person attending.

The International Order of St. Luke the Physician (OSL) is an ecumenical organization dedicated to the Christian healing ministry. The OSL website, www.orderofstluke.org, is very informative. More information about the Mountain Chapter is on our website, www.AshevilleOSL.org

OSL members are clergy, health professionals, and lay people who feel called to make Jesus' ministry of healing a regular part of their lives. Jesus' ministry of healing was a central way in which He demonstrated that the Kingdom of God is at hand. Jesus expanded His healing ministry by passing along His healing power first to the twelve disciples and then to the seventy-two others. Jesus now calls each of us to continue His healing ministry through the power of the Holy Spirit working through us.

We become more equipped for this ministry by studying the healing ministry of Jesus Himself. Completion of the study of The Healing Ministry of Jesus leads to full membership in OSL. Jeanne Robertson, a member of Grace Episcopal, facilitates this study group. She and Ann Robinson, also a member of Grace Episcopal, would be happy to talk further with you about the Order of St. Luke and the Mountain Chapter.

Adventure of a Lifetime

John Woodson

John has completed over 1,200 miles on the Appalachian Trail this year. Many of you have followed his progress on Facebook, but we wanted to share some of his reflections here, as well. Welcome home, John!

I started back at Fontana Dam on September 23 and arrived at Springer Mountain, Georgia, on Monday, October 10; and then hiked on to Amicalola Falls State Park on Tuesday the 11th, to finish off my Appalachian Trail hike which I have been doing this year since late March. Although I didn't end up hiking the whole trail as I had originally intended, I was able to complete over 1,200 miles of actual hiking, and followed along the trail by car for another 500 miles through New England after getting off near the NH/ME border in August. I want to thank everyone at Grace Church for your prayers and moral support as I made my way along the trip, with its ups and downs (literal and figurative, both). Especially to be thanked are my wife Beth and daughter Jade, as they allowed me the opportunity to take the year off and follow my dream of a lifetime in attempting to hike the whole trail. Beth mailed my food drops to post offices along the way, and drove to meet me at several places along the southern half of the trail. She picked me up and brought me home from Virginia when my knee got inflamed and swollen in May, and then took me back to the trail after a couple of weeks recuperating at home. Jade provided a way for me to communicate my whereabouts along the way by taking my text and picture messages and posting them on Facebook for me, so that my other family and friends could track my progress on an almost daily basis.

The experience was so awesome that I am still overwhelmed with the magnitude of what I was able to accomplish, and totally blown away by what other hikers are accomplishing as they complete the whole trail. I met many wonderful people along the way, and there certainly is a "trail community" that provides support for each other all the way from Maine to Georgia. It will take me some time to reflect on all my experiences and realize what it all has meant to me, and what my greatest lessons were. I have always felt closer to God when I have been out in His natural creation, but never spent this much continuous time in such close Communion. It certainly has had one effect, and that is to make me much more appreciative of the creature comforts we have in our civilized society, and aware of what it must be like for those who have nothing but what they are carrying, wherever they may be. Let us keep them all in our thoughts and prayers.

A Note from Beth's Perspective

As you can imagine, John's wife, Beth, had her own challenges. Thank you, Beth, for taking such good care of John and for sharing your thoughts here.

I am certainly thankful to have John safe at home and only a little worse for the wear. I missed him a lot both emotionally and practically. I really hate mowing the lawn because of a mower accident when I was young that left a large scar on my leg. Grace Church has been so supportive, especially the PubSing group. I appreciate everyone's prayers and concern. Our daughter, Jade, and dog, Moses, have been comforts to me. Text messages and Jade's posts kept me assured that he was well. I had some long days and lonely times. I probably didn't get enough sleep and definitely not enough exercise. We now have to decide what retirement has in store for us together. I am quite sure that John will get the urge to spend a few days on the trail from time to time. And that will be OK.

Diocesan Convention, November 11-13

On behalf of Bishop José McLoughlin and the parishes of the Western Deanery, we are excited to welcome you to the 95th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Western North Carolina to be held Friday evening, November 11, through Sunday morning, November 13 at Kanuga Conference Center. Bishop McLoughlin, diocesan staff, Kanuga staff, and clergy and laity of the Western Deanery hope that our time together will be both enjoyable and productive.

As we have for the past two years, our convention begins late Friday afternoon in an effort to make participation more manageable for lay delegates, deacons and volunteers. We ask that those attending convention please make arrangements that may be needed in order to participate in Holy Eucharist with our new bishop on Sunday, November 13.

During our time together, we will conduct the business of convention, foster relationships and birth new ones, learn about and connect with ministries within our diocese and the larger body of the Episcopal Church, and nurture our faith together through prayer and worship.

On Saturday evening, we will gather for a time of service and fun. Stop Hunger Now will be with us to provide an opportunity for the gathered to serve Christ in others. Live music will be provided by the band Gnarly Fingers, a favorite of the Western Deanery region.

Please know that your participation in our annual convention is deeply appreciated by your friends in the Western Deanery. To all those who have offered their time and talent as volunteers, workshop leaders, guides, participants in worship, and elsewhere, I give you our heartfelt thanks.

The Reverend Bill Breedlove, Dean, Western Deanery

Shannon and Greg Townsend are our delegates to convention this year. Thank you so much for your willingness to serve in this way. We look forward to hearing your report Sunday, November 20, during the adult Sunday school hour.

Kids of the Kingdom Reminder

Kids of the Kingdom Choir will combine with adults at both the 9:00 and 11:15 services on December 18 for Lessons and Carols. Rehearsals for this will be held on November 13 and December 11 during the Sunday school hour.

We also thought you might enjoy seeing some photos from the recent “Kids of the Kingdom Sweet Treats Banquet.”

Advent Wreath Making, November 27

Sunday, November 27, we will be making Advent wreaths in the parish hall beginning at 10:00 a.m. This is a wonderful family event and an opportunity to participate in a centuries-old Christian tradition. You will be guided to make your own personal Advent wreaths. All supplies including candles are available for a donation of $5.00. Candles only may be purchased for $3.00.

This year, Adult Sunday School is taking this on as a special project and could use your help with the following:

- cutting greenery to the appropriate size on either Friday, 11/25, or Saturday, 11/26;
- collecting money and handing out supplies on Sunday, 11/27; and
- circulating and helping people with supplies, greenery, etc. on Sunday, 11/27.

If you can help, please email Greg Townsend at gwtownsend@outlook.com and let him know what you can do.

Pledge receipts through the end of September totaled $265,495, compared to projected pledges of $246,750. Considering all income sources, income received to date totaled $327,178, while we projected income to be $301,840. We ended the month with another positive variance in overall projected income of $25,339. We continue to experience a very positive trend in overall income.

The positive income variance thus far was reduced somewhat by expenses, which were greater than budgeted amounts by $566. When subtracted from the positive income variance of $25,339, our income less expenses resulted in a surplus of $24,773 for the year.

While we continue to move in a positive direction, your prayers and attention to our stewardship efforts are encouraged.

Your Vestry

Pledging from the Heart

On behalf of the Stewardship Committee of Grace, I ask that you prayerfully examine what you are giving to the Church. As Episcopalians, we are all called to give a percentage of our household income. Therefore, after you determine the percentage that best represents your household income, we hope that you will consider adjusting your pledge to also, more fully, represent your thankfulness to God for all that God gives to you. Furthermore, if you are not currently pledging, please join us in this wonderful aspect of God's calling to the members of Grace.

As Episcopalians, tithing has led many to new spiritual joy in their lives. We hope that, through tithing, you will join the Stewardship Committee, in experiencing those added joys to your spiritual life. The leadership of our parish commends you to tithe as a way in which to give sacrificially, meaningfully, and joyfully.

Soon you will receive a letter asking you to pledge. Remember that pledging not only allows Grace Church to continue to expand our mission in serving God in our community, but it also keeps the lights on and pays for the maintenance of our beautiful parish. Your pledge allows our church to fulfill the mission that God has for us. Please join us in this aspect of Grace's spiritual life and pledge today!

Like humility, generosity comes from seeing that everything we have and everything we accomplish comes from God's grace and God's love for us... Certainly it is from experiencing this generosity of God and the generosity of those in our life that we learn gratitude and to be generous to others. - Desmond Tutu -

This is your community, and it's a great place for you to share your news so that we can all get to know each other better, and support each other! Tell us what's going on in your life, what matters to you, and share your challenges. This is a way in which we can extend community beyond our church doors.
